Moving On

The Oracle will be 25 years old in January and over that time it has had 3 volunteer editors. First, when the Oracle began as a newsletter for the Overton Community Council, the clerk, Alan Edwards was editor, supported by an OCC subcommittee. When he left in June 2004, Maxine Palmer took over, and she was replaced by me in June 2006. In November 2008 the OCC realised that their village newspaper didn't comply with new codes within the Local Government Act on Council Publications, so the Oracle became an independent organisation with an editorial committee, but supported annually by the OCC with a grant, and by advertisers.

Over the last 17 years the Oracle has followed me wherever I have been. As more and more contributions arrived by emails, and laptops became more portable, it was possible to compile it anywhere in the world - beside the pool in Napa Valley California, in the Scottish Highlands, stuck in JFK airport...to name but a few.

What editions were most memorable? The year we won Calor Village of the Year, 2011 Party in the Park? The village celebrations for the Jubilees in 2012 and 2022, the Coronation edition? But I think what I am most proud of are the Oracles during the national pandemic, how it kept everyone in touch and provided information on the changing situation.

None of this would have been accomplished without volunteers, the many different members of the editorial committee over the years, and all the distributors who go out, whatever the weather, to bring the Oracle to your doorstep.

Time to move on, but I am sure the Oracle will thrive and develop with its new editor, Sarah-Jane Hellingman, and I wish her well.

Jill Burton

News from the Pews

with Father Jeremy

I don't know how long you've been making preparations for Christmas! As it's my first one living in Overton, I've been thinking about where the Christmas tree might go up in the Rectory, (there are some great holly bushes in the garden which will help!). One can find great inspiration from interior design magazines with beautiful baubles and lovely lights; no matter how decorative the scenes are, I wonder how practical it is to live in such a wonderland - after all, none of the pictures have any people in them! I'm also choosing cards to send to family, friends and former parishioners - how difficult it is to find ones that have any people, let alone religious figures that draw us to the message and meaning of the Christmas story.

Fewer cards are sadly now being sent - partly because of the cost of postage, but also through the way many people now communicate (though digital means which can be very impersonal). Whether you're sending cards or not - our broken world still needs the personal message of Christmas - the time when God comes to humanly interact and touch us with the presence of his love through the birth of Jesus. We can send that message by giving to charity - remembering people like Jesus, born into poverty who need our response of love to give them joy and peace. We can also do that in person; like the Shepherds or Kings who brought gifts to the Holy Family, what can we bring to decorate the life of a neighbour, relative or someone we don't know?

Christmas is a time to both celebrate and commiserate with those whose experiences today resonate with what happened in Bethlehem two thousand years ago. Come and connect with this timeless story with the Services listed in this edition and others taking place for schools, play groups, charities and other organisations across the 5 churches from Overton to Bronington. There will be decorations and lights in this special festive atmosphere, but it's the thoughts and actions that we give and share that will make Christmas come for you and for all whom Christ comes to bring hope and love for.

Overton School memories

Just a few weeks before he passed away, Pip Haynes was sorting through his old photos and sent the Oracle these photos of happy memories of his time at Overton School in the 1950s. These were taken in the playground where Old School Mews is now and the end of Deva Terrace can be seen to the right of the climbing frame.

From L to R on the balance beam:- Philip Evans: Ruth Woolley: Pip Haynes, Sandra Haynes: not sure about the girl hanging upside down but maybe Barbara Edwards: Teacher (kneeling) is Joey Miles.

Bellringing update

Two St. Mary's bell ringers travelled to St. Margaret's Church Bodelwyddan (Marble Church) recently to ring in a historic peal. It was rung to celebrate the anniversary of the consecration of the church in 1860, the coronation of King Charles III, and is believed to be the first peal on the bells for 70 years. It was a gruelling three hour ring, but all went smoothly.

In the last 3 months St. Mary's has welcomed three groups of visiting bell ringers from North West Wales, Mold, and the Welsh Colleges Society. They all enjoyed ringing the bells and were very complimentary about the village, shops and facilities.

Several ringers helped out at the Harvest and gift day celebrations and enjoyed ringing for St. Mary's School children's Harvest Festival service (see image).

Our new bell muffles, bought by a generous donation from Friend's of St. Mary's, were used again for the Remembrance Day service on November 12th. Muffles are leather pads fitted to a bell's clapper. They attenuate the bell's strike note whilst retaining the hum. By only muffling the clapper on one side, you get a mournful effect as blows are alternately loud and soft. Bells fitted with muffles in this way are said to be half-muffled.

If you ever want to come and watch us ringing St Mary's church bells, just call in on a Tuesday, anytime between 6-7.30pm.

Clare Morris, Tower Captain.

Speeding Update

There have been no fines yet after 30mph was reduced to 20mph on 17th September in Wales, but the grace period whilst drivers got used to the new LEGAL speed limit is now over. Latest figures indicate that over 40% of drivers are ignoring the new limit, so agree with it or not for whatever reason, many motorists are risking fines and points. As an example, if you are caught doing 40mph+ in a 20mph zone, the case is likely to be passed to a magistrate's court where you could face a heavy fine and a driving ban. This could cause serious ramifications in everyday life and increased insurance premiums. YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED.

St Mary's School News - Taking time to Remember and Sporting Achievements

It was a beautiful morning of reflection on Wednesday 8th November as Year 6 led our School Remembrance Service in St Mary's Church. We were honoured that members of the Overton Branch of the Royal British Legion could join us in our Act of Remembrance. Family, friends and community, were in attendance as pupils shared a thoughtful reflection on the importance of Remembrance, recognising the service and sacrifice of the fallen service people of Overton, and countless others from Britain and the Commonwealth, who fought and gave their lives during times of conflict, and those who continue to do so. Year 6 pupil Esther Theunissen, performed a moving solo piece on her violin setting the tone for the poignant roll-call of the fallen, read by Logan Netzband-Piggot. Not a sound could be heard as the two-minute silence fell at 11am and we united in Remembrance. Thank you to everyone who came and shared in our special service.

Pupils have been busy participating in a number of sporting events this month. Our netball and football teams enjoyed friendly matches against Hanmer and kept their spirits high despite the very soggy weather! Key Stage 2 pupils also took part in a Cross-Country event at Ty Mawr run by Active Wrexham. Well done to Harriet Evans who achieved 3rd place in the competition.

And finally, we would like to add that all of us here at St Mary's are very sad to be saying goodbye to Jill Burton as Editor of this newspaper. Jill has been very supportive of our school; taking great interest in what we do, working with pupils and sharing her local history expertise. We wish you a very well-deserved rest, Jill!

Christmas (in October!) Fair

The Overton Village Hall Management Committee would like to thank everyone who attended and were part of the Christmas Fair, held in October, at the Village Hall.

As a charity, we make the space as affordable as possible - a local place to have your children's party, a family get together, a wedding, maybe a 50th....

Over the last 3 years we have spent over £50,000 to keep the doors open. It is an old building and every penny raised goes straight to heating and maintenance.

HUGE, HUGE thanks to all the local businesses and stallholders who donated to the raffle and congratulations to those that won...great photos on the Facebook page if you want to see!

St Mary the Virgin Church Christmas Bingo

After a break of several years, due to Covid, St Mary's Church is running its very popular Christmas Bingo again.

The date for your diaries is Thursday 21st December and Overton Village Hall is the venue. There's money prizes for the Bingo and an interval prize draw.

It's always a fun evening, so bring along your friends, family (and dabbers), for a great social night out.

Doors open 6.15pm and it's eyes down at 7.00pm.

Everyone is welcome!

If you would like to donate a prize for the interval draw, there is a box at the back of St Mary's Church where they can be left, or contact 07753 463125 and we will collect any donation.

If you are in need of a lift, it can be arranged by calling the above number.

Dear Editor

In your November issue our local County Councillor, John McCusker, wrote about the 20mph speed limits recently imposed on many of our roads.

This is a contentious issue; at time of writing 465,844 people have signed the Senedd petition calling for it to be abolished with 5,281 calling for it to be retained. Some may argue, based on those numbers, that it is not contentious at all, that it should never have been introduced.

If new laws are not understood and accepted as reasonable by a significant majority of the population, they create division between citizens and mistrust of the state, including its law enforcement agencies. This law, judging by the Senedd petition numbers (the only objective measure we have), does not meet the 'significant majority' threshold.

In his article Cllr McCusker refers to driving at 20mph through the village before the "lunatic" screeches past at horrendous speed'. It is incumbent upon those in authority, and I include Cllr McCusker in that category, to treat contentious issues in a balanced, judicious manner. His description of being overtaken creates a barrier for anyone who wishes to question the new limit, implying that those who disagree with it must therefore sympathise with the "lunatic".

Where was/is the consultation on this matter? Does Cllr McCusker know what the majority opinion is in his constituency? If so, publish it. If not, he should refrain from referring to "lunatics"

The actions of the driver 'screeching past' and the words of Cllr McCusker are consequences of a law which does not carry with it the consent of a large enough majority of the population (if indeed any majority). Driver frustration leading to inappropriate overtaking, and politicians using exaggerated, belittling language to describe it, are clear evidence of the division and mistrust this law is creating. Name supplied

Thank you...

I wanted to thank the people that helped me on October 25th when I was unfortunately locked in the disabled public toilet in the car park in Overton. In particular I want to thank the 2 ladies who stayed with my husband throughout my ordeal, and also contacted the council who sent someone to rescue me. I don't know the ladies names but I was touched by their kindness and I wanted to acknowledge them and to say thank you for helping us. Pat and Roye Fitzgerald

In Times Past

From the Overton Parish News in 1883

"The date of the sale of work or 'German Fair' is now fixed for the 14th and 15th December. The Duke & Duchess of Westminster have most kindly consented to open it at 2pm on the 14th. A warm welcome it is hoped will be given by all the inhabitants to them on this first united visit to Overton. Happily a fine afternoon and the bells in the Church will ring.

The Coffee House and Reading Room managed by Mr. James Barnett, has entered on it's 4th year. It is hoped it may be a useful year. The bottom room is free to all who may enter for refreshments. The two rooms have been done up and are very comfortable with their fires in winter. A good selection of newspapers are available. Subscription to the Reading Room is a penny a week or a shilling per quarter. A skittle alley has been added.

A new gift to the church should be mentioned, a new lectern in oak, an eagle with outspread wings standing on a rock in act to fly, has been given by Mrs. Mackenzie in memory of late rector Rev Henry Mackenzie, for 11 years rector of Overton."

And it's still there!

Donation to St Mary's

A large bible has been given to St Mary's Church by Mr Gerry Owen. Gerry lived in the village for 90 years. He carried the standard for the British Legion for many years, in the village and at the Royal Albert Hall. He was also a bell-ringer at St Mary's.

A character of the village, he embraced all aspects of village life.

RBL Thanks you for your support

The Chairman and members of the Royal British Legion, Overton on Dee Branch would like to thank the local community, including all those who participated in the village tribute to the fallen on Remembrance Sunday 12th November.

It was wonderful to see so many people attending, and braving the wet and chilly weather.

This was Father Jeremy's first Remembrance Service at St Mary's, and special thanks to him, he did us proud. On behalf of the Chairman and Members of the Royal British Legion - Overton on Dee

Once again I'd like to record our gratitude to local company, Matthews Electrical, for sponsoring (and providing) our new kit for 2023/24.

Without their support, and the help from our other sponsors, it would be difficult to sustain a village football team.

The team has had a very successful start to the season, securing at the half way point stage, nearly as many points as the whole of last season, huge progress for which the players and management team should be very proud.
