HELPING OTHERS

For the second year running children at St Mary's Primary School in Overton have filled shoeboxes for the Operation Christmas Child Charity. The boxes full of gifts will be sent to spread some Christmas cheer to children in the some of the World's poorer areas. In the picture to the left, with just a small selection of the boxes collected are (back left to right) Mollie Fowles, Leah Hughes, (front left to right) Ceri Morgan, Max Farnworth and Nell Clacher.

Pupils at the school also raised over £150 for 'Children In Need' by holding a number of events in school, ranging from a talent show and cake bake to a fancy dress contest. Pictured to the right are some of the pupils who helped raise the money (back left to right) Matthew Williams, Rhys Jones, Emma Done and Beth Harrison (front left to right) Emily Whitfield and Thomas Hollingsworth.

OVERTON REALLY HAS GOT TALENT !

There were fifteen superb and varied acts which played to an enthusiastic crowd of just under 300 people at St Mary's Church on 13th November. These included Simon Rosselli cutting up Miss Molyneux (and putting her back together), Nonna Woodward reciting Albert and the Lion so dramatically and Eleanor Jones' spine-tingling Ave Maria. Two hidden Overton gems were Rhys Jones – Overton's future Aled Jones - and Judy Riddle who surprised even her neighbours by displaying her talent on the mouth organ. No to forget the bell ringers and their lovely contribution.

The audience were entertained by AbbaDadda singing 'Does Your Mother Know?' with beautifully dressed young dancers, Edwina Coward, Eliza and Heath Rosselli, Rowena Wodehouse and Graham Hobson's beautiful singing. The harmonious St Mary's School Choir sang 'Rhythm of Life' and Alex Kokic and Megan Roberts played their debut performance on the piano. Finally, John Buttress, who was returning to church after 22 years, played 'Jerusalem' on the organ – a perfect rousing ending to the perfect evening. The Overtonians were not only up to their very high standard but kindly donated their time and equipment for the night. John McCusker held this quirky night together with his witty comments. Peter Rosselli and Mary Hilton-Jones provided positive feedback for our performers.

Thanks to all the performers who put in so much time and effort, all those who helped before and during the night (organising, making food, selling tickets etc), the donators of prizes and the Rector and Church Fundraising Committee who made it all come together. Over £1,300 was raised, so thanks also to those who braved the storm and rain to attend and support the event. It was a wonderful community event and watch this space for 'Overton's Got Talent II'!

Rafela Fitzhugh

Thank you to the committee and all who took part in the wonderful OVERTON'S GOT TALENT EVENING. It truly was a special evening and I thank you for all your hard work and time. It was great to see St Mary's church full of people enjoying themselves. It was a very special atmosphere. Thank you.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Christine Evans on gaining her a Degree in Accountancy.
From Wullie and Eileen

It's never too late! Val Stevenson was recently the proud recipient of a first class honours BA degree and is photographed with the Chancellor of Glyndwr University, the honourable Lord Barry Jones. Val is a mature student and didn't commence her studies in "English and Media" until past her 50th birthday. A person who enjoys a challenge, Val said "It's been a long haul – I've been studying, mostly part-time, for the last 10 years. So, completing my degree was really satisfying". Many congratulations to Val, for whom 2009 has been a memorable year – she's become both an honours graduate and a grand-mother!

Congratulations to Sean Clarke on his graduation for gaining a Masters Degree in Business.

TRAFFIC CALMING / SAFETY MEETING

Please remember that we need many members of our community to help with the progress and hopefully the success of calming speed and making our environment safer for all. The next meeting is 15th December in the Parish Room at 7 pm.
Come and help make a difference.

No jam – No Jerusalem – What then? by Chris Nunns

On Thursday 29th October, Overton and Erbistock Penylan & Rhosymadoc WIs held a very successful and buzzing lunch in Overton Village Hall. Scrumptious home made soups, cakes, tea and coffee were served to many appreciative people. An interesting and informative talk was given by David Culshaw, a local beekeeper from Llay, producer of Mel Pur Honey (Pure Welsh Honey), and we all learnt some interesting facts about the complex, intricate and fascinating world of bees.

The event was organised to support the resolution by the National Federation of Women's Institutes, which calls for more to be done to stop the decline of the honey bee. The campaign seeks reassurance from the Government that researchers into honey bee health will receive funding for their work, important to our country's ecosystem and to help promote bee health. Bees are central to our existence.

St Mary's pupils preparing the posters

We would like to thank all those people who bought tickets, who gave prizes for the raffle, attended our lunch and supported this most important cause. A big thank you go to the children of St Marys School for their beautifully illustrated bee pictures, which we used to decorate the hall, and for the wonderful poster which we posted outside the village hall. And thanks to all the WI ladies who helped to make this new lunch initiative go with a BUZZ. May it be the first of many!

Do come along to our next WI meeting with seasonal refreshments and mince pies and guest speaker Ruth Moore Williams, the well known local story teller, 7.30pm on 10th December in the Village Hall.

SALOP ROAD'S CHELSEA PENSIONER

by Alan Jones

Next to the former Bryn y Pys Arms until it was demolished in the second half of the last century stood a row of three small cottages. At the time of the first census (1841) the Duke family lived next to the pub. George, age 45 an agricultural labourer born in Chester was "Head", and his wife Margaret was 48. Margaret was a widow when they had married at St John' Church, Chester in 1837. They had a daughter Ann, aged 2, and Margaret's mother Elizabeth Roberts also lived with them. She died in 1853 aged 80 having lost her sight.

They were at the same house in 1851. George was now a bricklayer's labourer but is also stated as being a Chelsea Pensioner. He was an Out Pensioner, one who had served his time or had been invalided as a result of wounds. Out Pensioners were eligible ex soldiers who could not be housed in the hospital as there were more Pensioners than places. They received their pension from the Royal Hospital but lived outside. In 1703 there were only 51 Out Pensioners by 1815 this figure had risen to 36,757.

George had joined for the 11th (North Devon) Regiment of Foot in Barnstaple, Devon on 12th August 1813 when he was aged seventeen. He was to serve 22 years & 90 days, including serving 7 years on Gibraltar, 15 mths in Portugal and 8 yrs 3 mths in the Ionian Islands, a British Protectorate from 1813 until their secession to Greece in 1864.

He left the Regiment on 8th November 1836 after an examination at Chatham General Hospital where he was declared unfit for service and likely to be permanently incapacitated for military duty by chronic rheumatism, his strength and activity failing. It was also stated that he was much debilitated by long residence in a warm climate and having a weakening of his left wrist from a fall.

Upon discharge he was aged 39, 5 feet 6½ inches tall with brown hair, hazel eyes and a brown complexion. He never rose above the rank of Private. George died in April 1861 aged 64, although the burial record shows 68. He is buried in Overton Churchyard as is Margaret who died in August 1862 aged 69.

Was he Overton's only Chelsea Pensioner?

Overton History Group

Thanks to everyone who came to the History Group's morning in October at the White Horse and had their old photos scanned.

Many interesting images were collected including this gentleman wearing the pre 1910 uniform of a postman.

Does anyone know his name?

Crafty Christmas

You will need:

A wooden spoon, Brown paint
Brown foam, Glitter (optional)
Red pompom, Wiggle eyes
Black pen, Glue

Instructions:

Paint the spoon and leave to dry. Cut 2 antler shapes from foam. Glue to the bowl of the spoon. We added a little extra glue to the antlers and sprinkled with glitter. Glue on the pompom and eyes and draw on a mouth. Now you have a dashing Rudolph to use as a puppet or just display!

Ramblings From the Rectory by David Lewis

Dear Friends,

We all have guilty pleasures in life. One of mine is the paintings of Thomas Kinkade, the self styled Painter of Light. My wife finds these paintings too smaltzy and glitzy. And I know they are not really what you would call great art. But somehow they speak to me, and I guess that is the secret to art, whether it touches your heart.

Kinkade is really famous for his Christmas paintings of snow covered streets and cottages, that are infused with a warm and glowing light. We have one on our living room wall, which I love and Sue is ambivalent to. It is called Cobblestone Christmas and it is a Cotswold scene of a stone bridge with a stream and a cluster of snow covered cottages.

Kinkade says this of the painting: 'In cobblestone Christmas, light spills from the windows of every home and suffuses into the crisp winter air, where it mingles with the incandescent fires of the setting sun. God and man have truly collaborated in a celebration of the season.' Thomas Kinkade is a Christian and for him the light that suffuses his paintings symbolises the light of Jesus in our world. And I guess that is why the painting speaks to me. It shows the true message of Christmas, that the light of Jesus really has come into the world and if we want it into our hearts.

John Johansen-Berg wrote this Christmas verse about the star of Bethlehem:

*"The star was simply a sign
Of a brighter burning light.
The birth of a child was the beginning
Of a light for a darkened world.
Shine on, and then star of Bethlehem
For we too live in deep darkness;
Lead us, spiritual thirsting seekers
To find the light in Jesus, prince of peace."*

And that is my prayer for us all this Christmas. That we too might find light in Jesus, prince of peace.

Have a great Christmas,
David.

COUNTRY BEAT by Constable Luke Hughes

I have worked in the Maelor area since June 2006 and I have very much enjoyed my time here, however it is with regret that I have to inform you that as of the 18th December I will be leaving the area to return to Rhos to perform the role of Area Car Officer, I have made this decision myself as I wish to continue to gain experience in all forms of police work and although I have very much enjoyed the past three and a half years I think its time to allow someone else to take on what has been a very enjoyable role as the Maelor Community Beat Manager.

I would like to think that I have made many friends over the years, many of who I sincerely hope to keep in touch with after I leave. Although I'm sure not everyone will be sad to see me leave... :)

I am pleased to confirm that my replacement will be in post by the time I leave, I will have also been able to introduce the officer to many of you prior to my last shift. The staffing in the area will remain unchanged and will still consist of the same number of full time officers and as ever, the support of the local special constabulary.

Finally I would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who have made me feel so welcome in the area, those who have helped me in my role and those who have made me smile when things haven't gone quite as planned.... thank you.

PC 1842 Luke Hughes
Bronington & Overton Community Beat Manager
Telephone: 0845 607 1002 ext: 48425

Overton Community Council wish to pass on their thanks to Luke for a job well done! We are sorry to be losing you but would like to thank you for all your hard work and support for the Council, particularly over the traffic calming issue. Thank you for all the work you have done - sometimes late at night - that most residents do not see or are not aware of. You have done a good job of keeping us safe. We would like to wish you well in advancing your career and look forward to seeing you in the area car in the Maelor area and who knows how high up the career ladder you will reach. Chief Constable perhaps? May the Force be with you!

Cllr David Burton

OVERTON MEDICAL PRACTICE

Flowers is the medical student assigned to us for 6 weeks till December. You will have been told when making an appointment that the doctor will have a student with them for your consultation. Extra time is allowed for these appointments to enable the doctor in charge of instruction to go through the procedure with Naomi in more detail.

We know a lot of people are concerned about Swine Flu but you really should make sure that you do have the normal Flu immunisation to safeguard your health. Special clinics started in November for the Swine Flu but they are being strictly monitored as instructed by the NHS. The first clinics are for children under 10 years old in the 'at risk' category and adults under 65 years of age who are also 'at risk'. Letters are going out to all those patients who are in these categories.

Dr Sreeram started her surgeries again in November, her GP registrar year will finish in March 2010 Naomi

Mr Phil Humphreys has retired as a Foundation Governor after over 17 years of service and guidance as a governor and more recently as our Chairperson.

His encouragement will be greatly missed and we would all like to take this opportunity to thank him for his support and enthusiasm towards our school, staff and pupils. Mrs Pat Clarke, Headteacher, presented Mr Phil Humphreys with a beautiful hand carved platter.

The Eco-council at St. Mary's School have been meeting over the whole year to gather information about the energy we use at school and completing a survey about our school grounds and enjoying some creative activities too.

The children found out exactly how much electricity and water we use and sometimes waste and have worked with our caretaker to plan ways to save energy too. We have had many successes so far this year, including a new pond development and our latest news is that we have gained our bronze and silver eco-school status in October...next step is our green flag - the highest accolade for a school to achieve. Congratulations to our fantastic 'eco warriors', we are so proud of what you have achieved, well done!

T h e V i l l a g e S t a p l e - S p e c u l a t i o n a n d G o s s i p b y S e a n C l a r k e

Overton appears to be buzzing with gossip regarding two of its more prominent members. The minute the village shop was advertised for sale, tongues started wagging quicker than Jenson Button leaving the pit lane. Never has one families career been more publicly scrutinised and pontificated over than Mick & Karen Pinder's imminent change of jobs. It would seem that our local entrepreneurs' ambitions know no bounds if rumour is to be believed. It's said that they are about to purchase;

* The Butcher's! * The Post Office! * Wason's! * The Trotting Mare! * The Dymock Arms! * The Boat!

Not content with buying up one or half the village businesses, they have also been linked with a swap deal for the chip shop (perhaps a few haddock are thrown in as the deal breaker) and also with the purchase of prime land at the rear of Pinder's. I have also managed to discover that I am not the only scouser in the village. Terry Leahy (Tesco CEO) is said to have been camped out outside the shop, pleading with Mick to join the Team in an effort to progress Tesco's global domination.

Mick and Karen are of course remaining tight lipped about their career paths but did let slip that they have also been rumoured to be buying and installing solar panels in the village for what purpose is still unclear...it also sounds a bit James Bond villain like to me. More likely are the more recent conjectures that he is;

* Joining the Welsh Assembly as Rhodri Morgan's replacement,! * Displacing Tony Blair as a front runner for European President! * Teaming up with Pete Tong for a Winter Season on the Decks in Ibiza!

I personally hope for his sake it's the latter. Whatever path awaits the family we all wish them the very best. Under their stewardship, the shop has flourished which has benefited everyone. Good Luck!
