Lest we forget

This year is the 90th anniversary of the unveiling of the memorial tablet in St Mary's Church for the "Men of the Parish who fell in the War 1914 - 1918". (see left) The Memorial Tablet was unveiled in 1920 by Brig-General Lloyd with the words, "We people of Overton are gathered here as one family to remember those whom we have known and loved in this place, and who, by sea and land, have in this war given their lives for their country and for us. May we never forget what we owe them, and try always to follow their example of love and sacrifice".

Ninety years later villagers will gather at the Cenotaph on Sunday November 14th 10.50pm to remember those who fell in war. The sale of poppies in the village is organised by Overton British Legion. Their membership is now down to 16 (from 90 in the 1920s). So this year don't just buy a poppy but think about giving your support by joining the Legion to help safeguard the welfare, interests and memory of those who are serving or who have served in the Armed Forces. Today there is even more need to support our young soldiers and their families. The Legion welcomes men and women of all ages, whether they have served in the Armed Forces or not. Contact Gerry Owen on 710792 for more details.

Royal visit to the Maelor School

The Maelor School, Penley was recently honoured to receive a visit from the Queen of Lesotho during her tour of the Wrexham area. The queen attended a short assembly in the school hall when the school choir sang a traditional Lesotho song, followed by a tour of the school.

The queen thanked the students and staff for their support of St Saviour's School in Leribe, Lesotho. Students and teachers have visited each other regularly backed by Dolen Cymru, and a close partnership has evolved between the two schools.

Review of the Overton Conservation Area

Everyone is welcome to come along to Overton Parish Room on Thursday 4th November between 3.30pm and 7.00pm to see the Draft Character and Management Plan of the Overton Conservation Area prepared by the Planning Department of Wrexham County Borough Council. An officer of the council will be present to answer any queries.

The Overton Conservation Area was first designated in 1971. A review of the existing protection measures has been undertaken and it is proposed that additional measures be introduced to safeguard the historic features and fabric of the entire area. The plan seeks to ensure that the special character and appearance of the Conservation Area is preserved or enhanced for future generations.

The proposals will also be displayed in the reception area of the Lampit Street Offices in Wrexham from Monday 1st November until Friday 12th November. The council will be grateful to receive views or suggestions on any aspect of these proposals by Friday 12th November.

Ramblings From the Rectory

by David Lewis

Dear Friends,

Lieutenant Stefan Weismann was a German medical officer serving on the Somme in 1916. Here is his description of that unimaginable hell that cost so many lives.

"For a full week we were under incessant bombardment. Day and night, the shells came upon us. Our dugouts crumbled. They would fall on top of us and we'd have to dig ourselves and our comrades out. Sometimes we would find them suffocated or smashed to pulp. Soldiers in the bunkers became hysterical - they wanted to run out, and fights developed to keep them in the comparative safety of our deep bunkers. Even the rats became hysterical and came into our flimsy shelters to seek refuge from this terrific artillery fire. For 7 days and 7 nights we had nothing to eat and nothing to drink while shell after shell burst upon us." (from 'Lest We Forget' by Max Arthur)

That brief description by a German medical officer to me illustrates vividly why it is so important that we keep the tradition of Remembrance alive on the Second Sunday of November. Because we should never forget the terrible cost of life that war brings.

As I write this in mid October, we have been celebrating National Poetry Day. To me there is no more vivid poetry than those which came out of the First World War. And one of the saddest poems comes from Rudyard Kipling. 'My Boy Jack' is a 1915 poem which Kipling wrote after his beloved son, went missing in the battle of Loos during World War I. It was years before Kipling and his family had Jack's death confirmed. They had to endure long years of uncertainty. The grief that Kipling felt was channeled into this poem.

'Have you news of my boy Jack?'

Not this tide.

'When d'you think that he'll come back?'

Not with this wind blowing, and this tide.

'Has anyone else had word of him?'

Not this tide.

*For what is sunk will hardly swim,
not with this wind blowing, and this tide.*

'Oh, dear, what comfort can I find?'

None this tide, Nor any tide,

except he did not shame his kind -

Not even with that wind blowing, and that tide.

*Then hold your head up all the more,
this tide, and every tide;*

*because he was the son you bore,
and gave to that wind blowing and that tide!*

For me those words by Kipling really do convey the sense of loss and despair that must have hit so many families. There can be no better testament to the despair and hopelessness that war brings. Remembrance Sunday reminds us all that

WE SHOULD NEVER FORGET!

Every blessing, David

COUNTRY BEAT

by Constable Stephen Evans

Hello everybody,

Yet again Overton has been subject to acts of vandalism. The Overton map in the park, glass in the telephone kiosk, paint thrown at the public conveniences and the glass of the two ornamental lights to the entrance of the church have all suffered damage. If anybody can offer any evidence or information please get in touch.

Government spending cuts are now in the open and we will now have to wait to see what impact this will have on the police service. I do however have it on good authority that neighbourhood policing will remain in one form or another.

The role of the CBM is already changing from what has previously been seen as the public face of North Wales police, into a more dynamic role, having more scope to deal with the criminal activity that unfortunately continues around us. This may mean you will see less of me (we don't see him now I hear you shout). Only joking, this just means I'm being pulled away from the village fetes and the traditional role of community policing etc so that I can concentrate on tackling the criminals out there.

I will still have overall responsibility for the Overton and surrounding area and please don't think I am disappearing. You will continue to see Beth and Jemma as you do now and if you have a problem that you would like to discuss with me then please don't hesitate to get in touch.

As ever thank you for your continuing support.

Overton Medical Practice

The next 'Flu Vaccination' Clinics are in November Those patients in the At Risk category, over 65 or pregnant should make an appointment.

Jackie Egerton, receptionist is leaving to join a practice in Whitchurch which is nearer for her to get to. Recruitment for her replacement is underway. Anwen Jones is joining us as a student Practice Nurse. The one year full-time Postgraduate Course is run by Glyndwr Uni. Anwen has a First Class Degree in Nursing and previously worked as a Surgical Nurse in Yale Hospital.

There is rather a nuisance issue which we would like to ask parents to help with. Children are using the Practice car park as a cyclo-cross course. Could we ask that those concerned are spoken to as they are marking the pavement and becoming a problem.

My trip to Uganda Pt 2 by Carol Dykes

Here is the second part of Carol's experiences of her recent trip to Uganda with the Groundlevel Foundation Trust.

When Richard our founder went to Uganda at the beginning of last year, he went to see the displacement camp on the border. There he found the mass graves of mutilated bodies. He obtained a piece of ground from the Governor to give them a proper Christian burial and also bought beds for the clinic.

While we were out in Uganda we also visited the camp. It took a 6 hour drive. There is so much poverty and disease; the smell was horrendous. You see it on TV but you don't realise how bad it is until you are there. I held a baby that was so tiny, her mum was crying, her other daughter aged about 8 years was holding another baby who I thought was about 9 or 10 months old until one of the health workers explained to me that it was the twin of the tiny baby that I had in my arms! The mother had had to choose as she didn't have enough milk to feed them both. We returned 1 hour later after a walk and a prayer at the graves. I picked the tiny baby back up from her mother but she was dead. I lost it, it was heart breaking. I never want to see or experience anything like that again. I cried for 2 days. I will never forget how useless I felt.

The only consolation is that we are helping in other ways by building schools and giving some children a chance to have some education, and to teach some of the parents health issues. Where we are working is in the bush, a very rural area, and although they have their own language they do also speak English. This did help!

If anyone would like to know more or see some photographs please contact me on 710794. And thank you once again to all who sponsored me, your support and generosity really helped. If you would like to sponsor me or donate any money, every penny counts. I will carry on fundraising and we still have a lot of work to do. If anyone would like to be involved please let me know.

A history walk on the Bryn y Pys Estate

On a sunny afternoon in September Overton and Lyneal WI members, along with a sprinkling of husbands, were taken on a most enjoyable and informative walk around the Bryn y Pys estate led by Tim Rosselli. As we strolled through the grounds we learnt about some of the history of the original hall and it's surroundings, about what happened during the war as well as before and after, and why the house was, unfortunately, eventually demolished. We saw the remains and the converted stables, which is now the Rosselli's home and enjoyed a delicious afternoon tea in the barn courtesy of Claire and our WI members who kindly provided sandwiches and cakes.

Thank you to Tim and Claire for inviting us, and showing us some great photos of an important part of our local history.

Overton Cubs and Scouts reach the top

Cubs and scouts from Overton Scout Group recently had an enjoyable visit to St Mary's Church, culminating in a climb up the church tower and on to the roof! A lovely evening provided wonderful views over the village. Many thanks to Church Warden Euan Stevenson who showed everyone around and climbed the tower twice!

This autumn has seen a rapid growth in numbers particularly in the Beaver colony which has seen the numbers shoot up to 20. The Scout troop is delighted to welcome new members and now has as many girls in the troop as boys.

There are now over 40 members in the 4 sections of the Overton Scout Group and we look forward to seeing many of them on parade at the Overton Cenotaph on Remembrance Sunday on November 14th.

Organ Recital

A date to put in your diary will be Saturday 11th December. Dr Anthony Hammond will be giving an organ recital in St Mary's Church, Overton. Dr Hammond was born in Shrewsbury, and began to study the organ when he was a pupil at Oswestry School. He is now Organist & Director of Music at Cirencester Parish Church.

The evening is to raise funds for the Friends of St. Mary's which helps to raise funds for the maintenance, care and improvement of the historic building that is our parish church. Tickets are available from the Corner Shop, the Chemist or 01978 710219

History Group

Another mystery to solve. This gentleman looks like another picture of 'Harry the pig man' whose picture was in an earlier Oracle but no one can remember his name. The picture was taken in the backyard of Coracle Terrace with Deva Terrace in the background. But what is he so proudly showing off? A carved corner cupboard? and did he make it? Let us know if you recognise it.

The next meeting of the History Group will be November 16th 7.30pm upstairs in the White Horse.

Michael Burks at Village Hall

Following the success of the 3 previous gigs presented at Overton Village Hall, the next is to be on November 12th.

It is in fact a coup as it will be the first ever appearance in this country of one of the biggest current acts in the USA, Michael Burks and his full American band. For a taster of what to expect see Youtube clips such as the instrumental version of "House of the Rising Sun" and the Free classic "Fire and Water".

There is already much interest in this gig as apart from Overton, he is only performing in London and at the Carlisle Blues Festival. Local fans can buy tickets from Wason's and The Corner Shop. It is anticipated that the gig will sell out. Tickets cost £15 and for further information ring 01948 770215.

Thank you

Neil, Debbie & Sophie Edwards would like to thank Margaret Matthews for organising a car boot sale & prize draw in aid of Sophie's trust fund. Thanks also to all who baked or donated prizes for the draw held in Overton Rec. Club. Also thanks to the White Horse for their donation after the skittle night. It is all much appreciated.
