delighted to see new exhibitors this year, as well as the regular ones !

The judges all commented on the extremely high standard across the board, and wish to say a huge THANK YOU to everyone who made this year's Produce Show so successful.

The results are on page 5 and lots more colour photos of the show, before judging and after, are on page 7.

Little Princess Trust

Over the last year Clarrie Macdonald-Brown has been growing her hair to donate it to the Little Princess Trust.

The Little Princess Trust provides real-hair wigs to boys and girls across the UK and Ireland that have sadly lost their own hair through cancer treatment. People kindly sponsored Clarrie £107.50 towards the wig being made. The photo shows Aaron from Ego Centric cutting the braids of hair that have been sent to make a wig.

Ramblings From the Reverend

by Rev'd Canon David Child

There's this story of a holy man walking through the foothills of Tibet. He was making his way to a village. He had his route mapped out but there was a mountain in the way so he knelt down and prayed that God would move the mountain. The mountain didn't move. The man continued to pray. He got older. His hair grew grey but the mountain still didn't move. He continued praying. He became older still, his muscles wasted, his bones grew brittle, his heart failed and he finally died.

If at this stage you were asked what's the message behind the story perhaps you might say that God doesn't move mountains, he helps us climb them. But then if you thought a little bit longer you would realise that this isn't a story after all. Why isn't it a story? Well it's not a story because in every story, there's always 'someone else'. What this story needs is 'someone else', someone else to come along, put his or her arm around him and say 'why don't we climb this mountain together?'

God doesn't move mountains; he intervenes through us and relies on us to help others climb their own mountains. Are you willing to become a 'someone else' in someone's story?

With every blessing,
David.

Fun time for young people

Overton Youth Club has recently taken a group of young people mountain biking around Hafod Country Park and Gorge Walking in the Snowdonia National Park. The activity proved a great success and is typical of the activities which the club regularly undertake. The club has undertaken numerous activities this year including Graffiti Art, Canoeing and Go-karting and welcomes new members to join the club which meets at the Overton Scout Hut on a Tuesday evening from 6.30 to 8.30pm.

Future activities planned are Ice Skating, a trip to the Trafford Centre for Xmas Shopping and a visit to the Pantomime. We encourage young people to join our club which provides a fun place to meet and offers regular interesting opportunities. Pop into the club to speak to Paul Griffiths & Katie Ford or ring Les Williams at Llay Park Resource Centre on 01978 859020

Thankfully It's been another quiet month regarding crime in the village. We have again been out and about on our patrols and been targeting areas which have come up from intelligence reports. We have had suspicious persons seen in the area so please report anything you are unsure about to 101, officers will be despatched to check them out. There has been no reports of Anti-Social Behaviour, if you do see any problems could you again please contact 101, if it's not reported then we will think it's all ok..

Unfortunately we have a large increase in dog fouling around School Lane and St Mary's Avenue area; this is a route for children and parents walking to school. So please pick up after your dog, I have posted leaflets to houses in the area detailing the impact on people's health. Local PCSO's will not hesitate issuing a fixed penalty fine of £75 if they witness your dog fouling. If you witness a person allowing their dog to foul on the street this can be reported to Wrexham Council on 01978 298989 or to PCSO's who can ask you to fill out a Council Dog Fouling form, WCBC will investigate and issue a fixed penalty of £75. However if this is appealed and goes to court it could end up being £1000 fine.

Again I have had reports of parking too near junctions, you must park 10 metres away from a junction.

With the night's drawing in we would like to advise you to close your curtains/blinds when it gets dark, opportunists can walk past and see into your home.

Thank you,

Playcentre News

After 3 years as chair of the Playcentre I have decided that it is time to move on. I feel my position has come to a natural end with both my children now attending school. I am more than confident in the appointment of our new chair, Sarah Evans. I have greatly enjoyed my time on the committee and being part of such a fantastic team, I have come away with many good friends and gained lots of experience. Thank you for all the support I have had over the years from so many people at Playgroup and within our local community. Claire Jowitt is the new vice treasurer with Louise Skillicorn taking over as treasurer. I would like to thank Claire for all her hard work, and for agreeing to remain on the committee to assist Louise with her role. I wish the new committee lots of love and luck xxx Angie Atkins

Come and grab yourselves a BARGAIN! Baby, children and maternity clothes, nursery equipment, pushchairs, toys, videos/DVDs, books, games and puzzles will all be on sale at great prices

Welcome back /Croeso yn olli!

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome the whole St Mary's School community back for the new academic year and hope everyone has had a peaceful and relaxing summer. It has been great to get back to school and see all the children so happy, smart and ready to learn. I couldn't help noticing lots of happy smiles on parents' faces too!

A very special welcome to our new nursery and all of their families. The children are already settling in very well to new routines and I look forward to getting to know all of the new faces in the coming weeks.

During the summer term, we had our Estyn Inspection and St Mary's was judged to be a good school. We are all very pleased with the Inspection report and were particularly proud to see the behaviour of the children described as 'first-class'.

St. Mary's is a learning community and we are always ambitious to do even better! Although we have only been back a few weeks, work has already started on addressing new areas for development while we are also responding to the many government changes taking place in education over the next year. Through working together and with the kind and valued support of the community, St Mary's can certainly look forward to continued success and further happy smiles! Mr. Gary Wyn-Jones Headteacher

Your Letters...

Dear Editor,

I am new to Overton's Twinning Association and I was lucky enough to join the other members on their visit to La Murette this August. The sun was shining and it was very hot in the village in the French Alps . I met some very lovely people, saw some beautiful scenery, had a ride up a small fortified mountain on a cable car and a sail on a small boat on a breathtaking lake! We also explored mazes and visited the Abbey of St Antoine where a medieval fete was being held.

I am looking forward to visiting La Murette again in 2 years time but I am even more excited about the fact that some of the lovely people that I met will be visiting Overton next August.

Pene Coles.Dear Editor,

Such good news. Knolton Farmhouse Cheese Ltd obtained the planning permission for the extra height for the drying plant. We've actually had planning permission for the whole project since 1995 but because of the modern type of dryer just needed extra height. We have been making cheese on our farm for nearly three quarters of a century and are pleased that it has the chance to carry on into the family's third generation. We employ on average 30 regular staff plus another 8 to 10 regular contractors all living locally, that is up to 40 families that rely on us for their living. We also support many local businesses in and around the Wrexham area by using them as suppliers and employing their engineering skills.

To dispel some of the myths that have been spread by some people I feel it necessary to explain what we do. We bring in milk, all English and Welsh, we then process it into cheese or butter or separate the milk into cream and evaporate the skim milk into skim milk concentrate. These products are then mostly exported to Germany, Austria, Holland, Italy, France or Ireland. There are 4 major roads to the farm via Ellesmere, St. Martins, Wrexham or Whitchurch. The plan is that we shall be able to turn the concentrated milk, or whey, into powder which will in fact decrease the overall traffic. Our waste is from washing milk from pipes and cleaning cheese vats. It is all piped to our effluent plant which turns it into clean water which is then piped straight to the Dee. We are checked monthly by the Environment Agency for the quality of the discharged water. We do not spread any waste in or around the Overton area. Our noise levels have been checked from many positions and are well within the limits set down by the council and the extra processing will be similarly monitored.

I have no idea what community the Community Council were supporting when they raised objections to us because I have received so much support from the local community who have gone out of their way to tell me of their support. They also haven't supported the local community that work for us, I would have expected jobs for 40 people would have been of more importance than a handful of people's views across the valley. As for industrialising the countryside? We have been on this site doing what we do for 70 years and classed as industry and rated as such for over 30 years and what we do very much supports farming and grew out of that. It was suggested by some people that we move the factory! Do they live in the real world? How easy is it to move a factory that has been built up over 70 years? I suggest that if they find the view so bad that it would be far easier for them to move. Alternatively perhaps as they are now such good friends with the local estate owners that they get them to plant trees in front of their houses like they have done in front of mine then they too could have a green tree wall to look at and be able to see very little else.

I would like to thank all the people who have supported us, especially the 3 letters in recent editions of the Oracle, it has been truly heart-warming after such hostility from the few. Running a business is never easy and you have to stay up to date to survive. This final piece of our processing has been a long time coming and will not guarantee our success but it does give our business a chance for a more secure future. If anyone would like to visit us to see for themselves what we do then they would be most welcome.

Many thanks, Russ Latham

Charity snooker exhibition

Recently Ricky Walden the World's no. 11 from Chester gave his time for a Charity Snooker Exhibition in Overton Recreational Club in memory of Neil and Sophie Edwards. Ricky presented a cheque for £2,200 to Shropshire fireman and Ironman Chris Davy for the Emmy Taylor Fund, a 2 year old who suffered terrible burns in a caravan fire. Donations from members and the prize draw on the evening raised over £400.00 which also went to the Emmy Taylor fund.

The Members would like to thank Ricky Walden and also his Manager Lee Gorton for organizing the event.

Messy Church

St Mary's Overton held their first New Messy Church on Sunday afternoon 14th September in the Scout Hut. We began with action songs and crafts followed by a short out door service and BBQ. Sixty hot-dogs were consumed! All had good time in more ways than one! The next Messy Church is on Sunday October.12th. 3 pm at the Scout Hut where theme will be 'Harvest.'

Charles Johnson 1892-1914

It was 100 years ago this month that the tragedy of the First World War first touched Overton when news of the first death of a local boy filtered back to the village. His name was Charles Edward Johnson and he was 25 years old. Born in 1892 he was the son of Charles and Annie Johnson. The family lived in a cottage at Knolton Bryn and father was a Farm Labourer, although by 1911 he had changed job to be road-man for Overton District Council in the Knolton area.

There were many children in the cottage – Alice born 1890, Charles in 1892, Thomas in 1894, Lizzie in 1896, Annie in 1898, George in 1902, Susan in 1904, Daisy in 1907 and finally May in 1909. Following that their mother Annie died.

Charles was a Private in the 2nd Battalion of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers (Army No 10500) It is likely that he was already a serving soldier when war was declared in 1914 because in August, within a few days of the declaration of war, the 2nd Battalion landed at Rouen as Lines of Communication troops. By October they were fighting on the French/Belgian border south of Ypres and in the Battle of La Bassée which took place 10th October to 2nd November. Charles was killed on the 26th October 1914 and is buried in grave XI. C. 3 of Pont-du-Hern Military Cemetery on the road between La Gorgue, and La Bassee. It was 8 weeks later, a few miles from where Charles is buried, that A Company of 2nd Battalion RWF took part in the Christmas Truce.

New councillor

Overton Community Council would like to introduce a new coopted member Steven Thomas-Spire was unanimously voted on by the other members of the community council. Steve writes "Hi, firstly I have recently been voted onto the Overton Community Council and would like to say hello to all and a thank you to my fellow councillors.

Secondly I have a vast knowledge and background to running, I am a coach at Wrexham AC and also am an athlete myself. My main concern is that I have noticed more and more runners on our roads around Overton, this is a good thing IF DONE SAFELY but with the dark nights coming I would like runners to stay safe and be seen; HI VIS is a must! Also be road savy, for instance where there are no paths, running towards oncoming traffic is best, not only for the drivers to see you but for you to be able to see vehicles coming towards yourself so you can react accordingly, especially if wearing ear plugs for music whilst running. If anyone would like any assistance in road running I am more than willing to pass on my help, thanks ... Steve"

Tales from the trade

After many years of our garage in Overton being closed, local lad Richard Smith of Richards' Auto Services starts the hard work in providing the village with its own garage services again. Richard aged 43 has been in the motor trade since leaving school, completing his qualifications with main agents and attaining master technician status. Richard went on to expand his knowledge, not just on cars, but also HGV's and attained many qualifications in this field. People of the village may even remember Richard working at the garage with Robin Wason over 20 years ago!

5 years ago Richard decided to "go it alone" and set up his own Mobile Mechanic business. As his good reputation grew, so did his clientele and over time, with lots of hard work and commitment, his business has gone from strength to strength.

Richard is now working from Overton Garage and over the coming months residents will see this once thriving business return to our village offering a friendly welcome, all the services any garage can offer and all at very reasonable rates. Call in for a chat or give Richard a call on 01978 710004
